

GROUP ONE DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

GROUP ONE: PHILANTHROPIC LEADERS AND THEIR PARTNERS
THEME: MOBILIZING PHILANTHROPY FOR CATALYTIC CHANGE
THE FORD FOUNDATION, NEW YORK
JANUARY 20TH, 2016 9:00 AM-12:30 PM

1. What new or unusual roles has philanthropy played in Detroit? How has philanthropy interacted with government and the market? What conditions made it possible for it to play these roles?
2. What new capital streams has philanthropy created in Detroit and other cities, and for what purposes? What have been the effects?
3. What is the mix of national and local foundation in Detroit? What has each brought to the table and how have they worked together?
4. What was in the public/philanthropic relationships in Detroit that allowed the Grand Bargain to occur? Can that quality of relationship be created in other cities?
5. What capacities (e.g. board support, culture, practical capabilities, etc.) does a foundation need if it is to leverage the public sector and market? Does it subject itself to new forms of accountability?
6. What other cities might be ready to address their problems through philanthropic interventions like those in Detroit? What philanthropic experiences elsewhere may be applicable in Detroit?
